1. Provide services as a first-class Host.

4. Avoid conduct that could bring the Program, TikTok, or Producer into disrepute.

5. Keep us informed of contact information and promptly report criminal prosecutions or changes in commercial relationships.

6. Producer Discretion

Producer has sole discretion over the Program's editorial content.

7. Intellectual Property Rights

7.1 All audiovisual materials and related assets created directly for the Program under this Agreement — including the LIVE stream, the promotional video(s), and the official TikTok post(s) (collectively, the "Program Deliverables") — shall be owned by the Producer and TikTok. However, ownership of the Program Deliverables does not grant automatic rights to use, repurpose, or repost the Host's image, likeness, voice, or performance (collectively, "Host Attributes") beyond the agreed campaign scope without the Host's prior written approval.

7.2 Any social content, materials, or assets independently created by the Host or the Host's team (and not commissioned or produced by the Producer or TikTok) shall remain the exclusive property of the Host. For clarity, any intellectual property or materials originally provided by the Producer or TikTok for inclusion in such content shall remain owned by the respective provider.

7.3 The Producer, TikTok, and their affiliates may use the Program Deliverables and the Host Attributes solely for the initial broadcast, promotion, and publicity of the Program and related TikTok LIVE campaign, in accordance with TikTok's media guidelines and within the promotional period agreed between the parties.

7.4 Further Use and Approvals.

Any repurposing, reposting, re-editing, or reuse of the Program Deliverables, or any portion thereof that features the Host Attributes — even where ownership of the assets resides with the Producer or TikTok — shall require the Host's prior written approval for each individual use, including any derivative, follow-up, or extended campaigns.

7.5 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as transferring ownership of the Host's personal brand, likeness, or any pre-existing intellectual property to the Producer or TikTok.

8. Fees and Expenses

As consideration for the services provided by the Host under this Agreement, the Producer shall pay the Host a total fee of $35,000 USD (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreed Fee") on a pay or play basis, provided that the Host has complied with all material obligations under this Agreement.

The Agreed Fee shall be paid in installments as follows:

- (a) 50% of the Agreed Fee (i.e., $17,500 USD) shall be paid within five (5) working days after the signing of this Agreement (the "Advance Payment");
- (b) The remaining 50% of the Agreed Fee (i.e., $17,500 USD) shall be paid within seven (7) working days after the successful completion of the live streaming, confirmed by the Producer's written acceptance, but in any event no later than December 20, 2025. Payments shall be made to the bank account provided on the invoice generated by or on behalf of the Host (with United Talent Agency, LLC pre-approved to generate on behalf of the Host).

The Producer shall reimburse the Host for reasonable and necessary travel and living expenses incurred by the Host for performing service obligations under this Agreement, provided that the Host submits valid invoices and supporting documents (such as flight tickets, hotel receipts) within ten (10) working days after the expenses are incurred.

If payment is delayed by more than thirty (30) days beyond the due date, the Host has the right to suspend service provision until all outstanding fees and overdue interest are fully paid. The Producer shall also compensate the Host for any losses caused thereby, including but not limited to reasonable legal fees and loss of expected benefits.

In addition to the Agreed Fee, TikTok will provide promotional support for the LIVE show featuring the Host, consisting of over 300 million (300M) paid and organic impressions across its platform and affiliated networks, valued at approximately 1.7 million USD. This promotional exposure is non-cash consideration provided directly by TikTok and does not alter the Producer's payment obligations under this Agreement.

9. Publicity and Credit

All media inquiries must be referred to the Producer's representative. Credit will read: "Hosted by Mel Robbins" following TikTok and production guidelines.

10. Warranties and Indemnity

You warrant that:

- You are free to enter this Agreement with no conflicting obligations;
- You are 18 years or older;
- You have no unspent criminal convictions;
- All Contributions are original and non-infringing;
- You will not do anything that might bring the Producer, TikTok, or the Program into disrepute.

Indemnity:

The Host shall indemnify and hold harmless the Producer against all third-party losses, damages, liabilities, claims, and expenses incurred by the Producer arising directly from any material breach of the warranties set out in this Clause 10, including but not limited to:

- Direct losses, such as third-party claim amounts, settlements, or fines;
- Indirect or consequential losses, including reputational damage and loss of expected benefits; and
- Reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, litigation costs, investigation expenses, and other costs reasonably incurred in connection with such matters.

Commenté [JB1]: + Indemnification of Host by Producer
+ Cover Host as an additional insured on the E+O and general liability insurance policies

The indemnification liability under this Clause shall not be limited by the amount of the “Agreed Fee” specified in Clause 8. However, the Host shall not be liable for any losses arising from the Producer’s own fault, gross negligence, or intentional misconduct.

11. Suspension and Termination

11.1 Definition of Force Majeure

Force Majeure refers to objective circumstances that are unforeseeable, unavoidable, and insurmountable. It includes, but is not limited to, natural disasters such as earthquakes, floods, and typhoons; abnormal social events such as wars, riots, and terrorist attacks; adjustments to policies and regulations issued by national or local governments that render the Agreement unenforceable; and public health emergencies (including infectious disease pandemics as defined by the World Health Organization).

After the occurrence of a Force Majeure event, the affected party shall notify the other party within twenty-four (24) hours and provide relevant supporting documentation (such as government announcements, news reports, or medical institution certificates). The parties shall promptly negotiate a follow-up handling plan in good faith.

11.2 Suspension of Obligations

Either party may suspend the performance of its obligations under this Agreement by giving written notice to the other party if:

- (a) the other party materially breaches any provision of this Agreement and fails to remedy such breach within fifteen (15) working days after receiving written notice requiring such remedy;
- (b) a Force Majeure event occurs and continues for more than thirty (30) consecutive days, making it impossible for either party to perform its core obligations under this Agreement; or
- (c) the other party becomes insolvent, files for bankruptcy, or enters into liquidation proceedings (whether voluntary or involuntary).

11.3 Termination

Either party may terminate this Agreement immediately by giving written notice to the other party if:

- (a) the other party’s material breach of this Agreement causes significant damage to the non-breaching party and cannot be remedied;
- (b) the suspended obligations under Clause 11.2 remain unperformable for more than sixty (60) days; or
- (c) during the Term (or prior to the Term which becomes public for the first time during the Term) the Host engages in illegal or unethical conduct (including but not limited to fraud, defamation, or violation of U.S. broadcasting standards) that harms or is likely to harm the reputation of the Producer or TikTok.

11.4 Consequences of Termination

Within ten (10) working days after termination of this Agreement, both parties shall complete the following actions:

- (a) the Host shall return all Program-related materials (including but not limited to rehearsal recordings, scripts, and promotional assets) to the Producer and shall not retain copies or use such materials without written authorization;

(b) if termination is due to reasons attributable to the Producer (and not the Host's breach), the Producer shall pay the Host the full amount of the fee and reimburse the Host for reasonable travel and living expenses already incurred; if termination results from the Host's breach, the Producer shall have the right to withhold unpaid fees; and
(c) Clauses 7 (Intellectual Property Rights), 10 (Warranties and Indemnity), 15 (Confidentiality), 16 (Data Protection), and this Clause 11 shall survive and remain in full force after termination.

12. Entire Agreement and Governing Law

This Agreement (including all Schedules attached hereto) constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, understandings, and negotiations between the parties relating to such subject matter.

Any amendment or supplement to this Agreement shall be valid only if made in writing and signed by duly authorized representatives of both parties.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, United States, excluding its conflict of laws principles.

Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall first be resolved by the parties through friendly negotiation. If negotiation fails, either party may apply to the American Arbitration Association (AAA) for mediation. If mediation does not resolve the dispute, either party shall have the right to initiate legal proceedings in the courts of New York, which shall have exclusive jurisdiction over such disputes.

The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

13. Notices

Notices may be delivered by hand, mail, or email to addresses specified by the parties.

14. Confidentiality

Both parties will keep confidential information private for two years post-termination. Each party may disclose confidential information to its respective legal or business representatives on a need to know basis, or otherwise as may be required by law or court order.

15. Data Protection

Both parties shall strictly comply with all applicable privacy and data protection laws in the United States, including but not limited to the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) and the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA), where applicable — particularly if the Program's target audience includes children under thirteen (13) years of age.

When the Producer or TikTok needs to collect, use, or process the Host's personal information (including but not limited to the Host's name, likeness, portrait, image, and voice) for the purpose of promoting or exploiting the Program, they must first obtain the Host's explicit written consent.

If, during the performance of service obligations under this Agreement, the Host gains access to the Producer's or TikTok's user data, trade secrets, or other confidential or proprietary information, the Host shall not collect, use, copy, or disclose such information without prior written authorization from the Producer or TikTok.

In the event of a data breach by either party, the breaching party shall notify the other party in writing within forty-eight (48) hours of discovering the breach, take all reasonable measures to prevent further exposure or damage, and fully cooperate with the other party and relevant regulatory authorities in investigating and handling the incident.

17. Anti-Bribery

The Host shall strictly comply with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) and all other applicable U.S. anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and regulations.

The Host shall not, directly or indirectly, offer, promise, authorize, or provide any money, gifts, services, entertainment, or other improper benefits to:

- any government officials or employees (including officers or agents of any government department, agency, or state-owned enterprise);
- any employees or representatives of the Producer, TikTok, or their affiliates; or
- any partners, clients, suppliers, or contractors of the Producer or TikTok, for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business, securing any improper advantage, or influencing any act or decision related to this Agreement.

If the Host violates this Clause, the Producer shall have the right to immediately terminate this Agreement without liability, require the Host to return all fees already paid, and seek compensation for all losses incurred as a result, including but not limited to fines, reputational harm, legal expenses, and other related costs.
